

Wokingham Town Centre

I walked around the town on Sunday to see progress with the redevelopment and did some shopping. The new stores on Peach Street were well supported. I understand there are several more in the later stages of contract negotiation. It is a good centre for shops, food and drink and leisure activities.