

Woodland projects across England to receive funding for jobs, training and increasing tree cover

Funding will support projects which are expanding woodland cover, providing jobs and addressing the forestry sector's skills shortage, and increasing access to nature