

Work begins to shape vision for the Earnse Project in Cumbria

A project designed to build a deeper bond between a community and their natural heritage is in development at Earnse Bay on Walney Island.