

Work underway to restore eye-catching structure's former glory

Engineers have started repair work on a stunning Grade II listed structure in the North East.