

World-leading climate initiatives to be developed through UK programme in Pakistan

The Minister for the Middle East, Hamish Falconer, has announced new funding to help Pakistani businesses adapt to the threat of Climate Change, during a visit to Pakistan.