

Yaumatei Maternal and Child Health Centre suspends service

The Department of Health today (October 3) said that due to building repair works at the Yaumatei Maternal and Child Health Centre (MCHC), the service of the MCHC has been suspended until further notice. Those who have made appointments will be informed of their new appointments after the service adjustment.