

York flood scheme continues in line with Covid-19 guidelines

Work is continuing on the York flood alleviation scheme to better protect properties in the city from the effects of flooding, the Environment Agency has said.