

Young people leading the charge on climate action

COP26 President Alok Sharma at the opening of Mock COP, a youth-led online climate conference from 19 November – 2 December, on the importance of working with youth and civil society in the run up to COP26.