

Youth Justice Statistics: record lows in custody and first time entrants

The Youth Justice Annual Statistics for 2023 to 2024 were published today. There are fewer first time entrants and children in custody, but court delays remain a concern.